What Customer Say

TendersInfo subscription has been quite useful in tracking various tenders. We are getting inputs from Tendersinfo on daily basis, without fail

The information provided by TendersInfo is very useful to us. We have participated in several tenders and also bagged few of them, for which the source of initial information was from TendersInfo.

I once again reiterate that the services provided by TendersInfo is up to our expectations and we are proud for choosing Tenders Info for providing such service.

TendersInfo is a must if your company is interested in International tenders and projects! I would not dare to adventure again in export without benefiting of the excellent information we get from

Our hopes have been exceeded: we got more leads than we can handle. The fast service we got from the support team and the excellent updates on selected projects deserve to be mentioned.

I have not seen that before. Also, you are updating the information practically every day; which seems to be very exact

Testimonials

One of the advantages of your TendersInfo Service is that you combine projects and calls for tender from different types of Financiers, Procurement Agencies etc., from all over the world.

Thank you
